Summit Ridge Coffee Co. — Q3 2025 Sales Report

Oct 11, 2026 · @Rebecca

Q3 2025 (July 1 – September 30, 2025) revenue was $4,102,300, up 9.9% from $3,732,500 in Q3 2024 and 1.3% above the $4,050,000 budget. Prepared October 14, 2025 by CFO Michael Fenwick and Sales Analyst Kevin Liu for the Board meeting on October 22, 2025.

Summary

Metric	Q3 2025	Q3 2024	Change
Total revenue	$4,102,300	$3,732,500	+9.9%
Gross profit	$2,756,700	$2,452,300	+12.4%
Gross margin	67.2%	65.7%	+1.5 pts
Labor cost (% of revenue)	31.8%	32.9%	−1.1 pts
Operating income (EBITDA)	$412,600	$331,800	+24.4%
EBITDA margin	10.1%	8.9%	+1.2 pts

Margin improved because green coffee contracts locked in March 2025 at $4.12/lb held through the quarter, and the July 14 schedule change cut 1,860 labor hours across the cafés.

Revenue by channel

Online grew fastest at +29.3%, driven by Summit Club subscriptions rising from 1,612 to 2,184 active subscribers.

Channel	Q3 2025	Q3 2024	YoY	Share of Q3 2025
Cafés (6 locations)	$3,203,700	$2,971,000	+7.8%	78.1%
Wholesale	$512,400	$462,900	+10.7%	12.5%

Channel	Q3 2025	Q3 2024	YoY	Share of Q3 2025
Online (Shopify + Summit Club)	$386,200	$298,600	+29.3%	9.4%
Total	$4,102,300	$3,732,500	+9.9%	100%

Monthly revenue was $1,421,800 in July, $1,388,600 in August and $1,291,900 in September. September dipped as expected when summer foot traffic in Golden and Boulder fell after Labor Day.

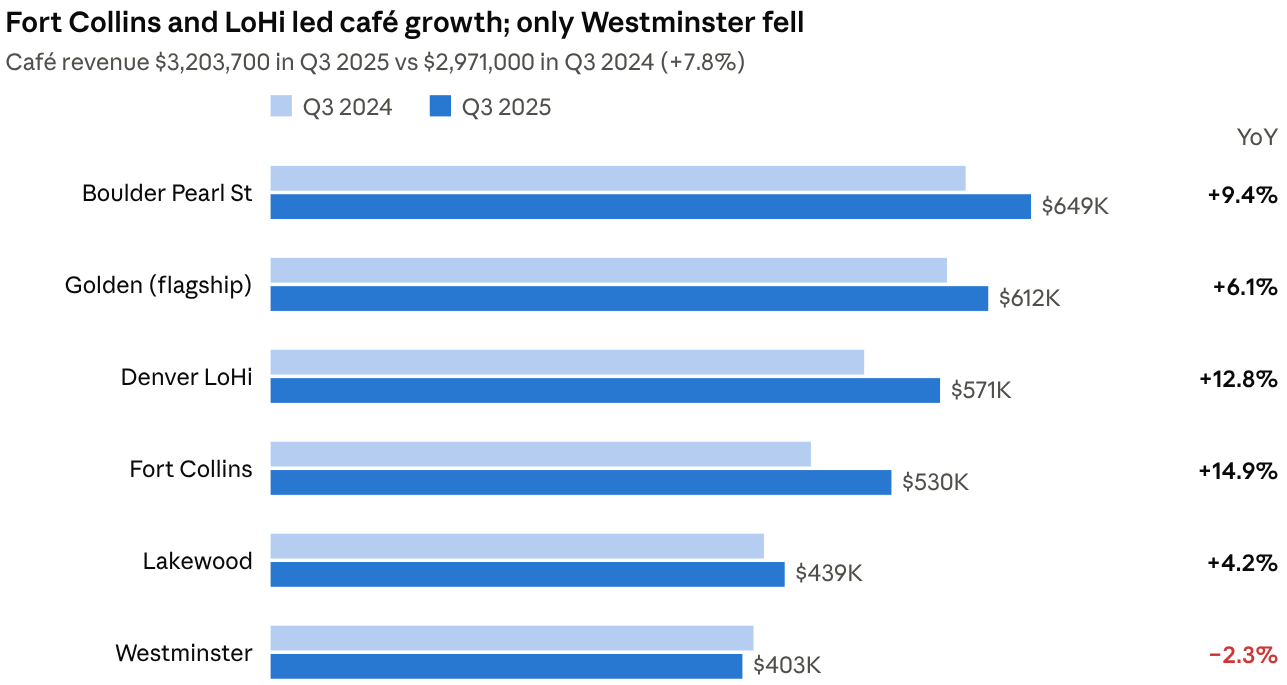

Café performance

Five of six cafés grew; Westminster fell 2.3% while Wadsworth Parkway construction blocked its east entrance from June 9 to September 19.

Café	Manager	Transactions	Avg ticket	Revenue YoY
Fort Collins	Erin Thatcher	63,400	$8.36	+14.9%
Denver LoHi	Andre Simmons	64,900	$8.80	+12.8%
Boulder Pearl St	Jenna Kowalski	74,100	$8.76	+9.4%
Golden (flagship)	Marcus Bell	72,700	$8.42	+6.1%
Lakewood	Hannah Cho	53,800	$8.15	+4.2%
Westminster	Carlos Mendez	50,300	$8.00	−2.3%
All cafés		379,200	$8.45	+7.8%

Fort Collins benefited from Colorado State University's fall semester starting August 25, 2025. Its weekday 7–9 AM transactions rose 22% versus Q3 2024.

Café revenue by location

Source: Toast POS café sales, Q3 2024 and Q3 2025

Boulder remains the largest café, but Fort Collins added the most new revenue ($68,700).

Product mix and top sellers

Espresso drinks made up 46.2% of café sales. Food attach rate (transactions including a food item) rose to 31% from 27% after the July 1 menu refresh.

Category (café sales)	Q3 2025 revenue	Share
Espresso drinks	$1,481,700	46.2%
Drip coffee & cold brew	$611,900	19.1%
Food & pastries	$548,300	17.1%
Retail beans & merchandise	$347,200	10.8%
Tea & other beverages	$214,600	6.7%

Top 5 items	Units (all sizes)	Revenue
Café Latte	52,400	$298,700
Summit Honey Latte	41,200	$254,900
Ridgeline Cold Brew	38,600	$199,300
Drip Coffee	47,800	$163,500
Green Chile Breakfast Burrito	14,900	$118,500

The seasonal Maple Ember Latte launched August 26 and sold 9,800 units ($63,200) in five weeks, beating its 7,500-unit target.

Wholesale, operations and Q4 outlook

Wholesale ended the quarter with 87 active accounts (15 added, 2 lost) and shipped 46,800 lb of roasted coffee at an average $10.95/lb. The five largest accounts made up 45.3% of wholesale revenue.

Wholesale account	Type	Q3 2025 revenue
Clearwater Bistro Group (4 restaurants)	Restaurant	$68,400
Poudre Valley Grocers (11 stores)	Retail shelf	$54,600
Foothills Coworking (3 sites)	Office	$41,900
Mesa Ridge Hotel & Suites, Lakewood	Hospitality	$37,200
Red Rocks Community Health	Office	$29,800

Operations: The Wheat Ridge roastery roasted 61,400 lb in Q3 (78% of its 78,700 lb quarterly capacity). Online orders totaled 7,930, with an average order value of $48.70.

Q4 2025 outlook: Budgeted revenue is $4,480,000. Holiday gift sets ($38 and $64) go on sale November 1, and the Black Friday promotion runs November 28–30. Key risks:

- The green coffee contract renews December 1; the quoted price is $4.65/lb, up 12.9%.
- Westminster recovery depends on the reopened entrance; the target is 4,500 transactions per week by November 30.

- The Arvada Olde Town lease (signed September 12) adds $86,000 in build-out spending ahead of a spring 2026 opening.